Figure 1. The effect of the concentration of the  $\text{H}_2\text{O}_2$  solution on the amount of the released  $\text{H}_2\text{O}$  from the  $\text{H}_2\text{O}_2$ -loaded hydrogel. The amount of the released  $\text{H}_2\text{O}$  was measured by the weight difference of the hydrogel before and after the release. The concentration of the  $\text{H}_2\text{O}_2$  solution was 0, 0.1, 0.2, 0.3, 0.4, 0.5, 0.6, 0.7, 0.8, 0.9, and 1.0 wt. %.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be in a language from the Middle East or South Asia. The script is dense and flowing, with many ligatures and variations in letter forms. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including discoloration and small dark spots. Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or document. The text is written in a cursive style and is arranged in several lines across the page. The paper appears aged and slightly discolored.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines showing signs of fading or wear. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the formal nature of the handwriting and the presence of some larger, more prominent words or phrases that might serve as section markers or headings. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged piece of historical writing.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, covering the entire page. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. There are several large, stylized characters or words that appear to be section markers or headings, such as 'و در کتب' (and in books) and 'و در کتب' (and in books), which are written in a larger, more decorative hand than the main body of text. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and slightly discolored.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is densely packed and spans most of the page width.
